Dear Parish Family,

Today is the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, The readings speak to us about the universal message of Jesus. We must remember always that the primary mission of Jesus was to the Jewish People. In today's readings, even Jesus is beginning to realize that his mission is expanding beyond the confines of Israel. In the Gospel reading the Canaanite woman has profound faith. She believes in him. In the first reading we see that the foreigners are more apt to join themselves to Jesus. In the second reading it is the Gentiles (non Jews) that Paul is addressing. It is amazing that the message meant for Jewish People was so quickly accepted by the Gentile world. Why?
