Financial Stewardship

For those who are financially able to continue to support the parish during this time, we encourage you to sign up for e-giving so that we may be able to continue the ministry of the church during this critical time.

Parish Religious Education & Catholic Schools

Regular parish CCD classes held on Sundays and Wednesdays are postponed for the time being. Likewise, all activities related to our children's faith-formation program such as the Sunday 7th grade seminar, Stations of the Cross practices, Confirmation mentoring sessions, and Child Lures training are also postponed for the time being.

The health of all the faithful of the parish is of utmost concern, so let us continue to pray to the Lord who is a healer to protect us and bring about quickly an end to this present crisis through the intercession of His Mother Mary under the title of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Sick Relatives & Friends

Please remember in your prayers the members of our parish and community who are ill, hospitalized or in nursing home care, most especially:

REACH OUT

During this difficult time, please take a moment to check on your neighbor, the elderly and the shut in to see how they are doing. Perhaps they may need an item from the grocery store, or someone to pick up their prescriptions, anything we are able to do for them would be appreciated. Sometimes all they need is conversation and that simply requires a phone call. These are unprecedented times and we are all in this together. Take some of the free time you may have to sit in prayer for all the world.

Please continue to support our parish during this difficult time. Enroll in On line giving at www.Givecentral.org/SHSS. The site is user friendly and very easy to navigate. We thank everyone for continuing to support our parish either through On line Giving or by dropping their respective donations in the Rectory mail slot. We are so very grateful for all you do for our great parish.

A Prayer for Strength

Our Father, sometimes the cares of the day seem to multiply while the blessings fade so quickly. Our bodies grow tired. Jesus help us. Give us the strength you've promised in your word. Give us the power to take the next step. Give us your grace for we know that in our weaknesses your strength is revealed. May we receive it today. Amen.

Dear Parish Family,

Today, the Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the theme of Wisdom seems to unite the Liturgy of the Word. In the first reading from the First Book of Kings, we read Solomon's prayer for wisdom. We also read God's response to the prayer. Wisdom is more than knowledge. It is seeing our surroundings, the events in our lives, our successes and our failures, our joys and our pains as God sees them. Wisdom is a gift from God. In the Gospel reading we continue the discussion about the Kingdom of God. Jesus is a wise teacher. Jesus uses the wisdom of the parable to explain the Kingdom of God. Jesus is smart. He uses images to which people may relate to explain to them the meaning of the Kingdom of God. Ultimately, for us, Jesus is the Wisdom of God.

The second reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Romans picks up on the Divine Wisdom theme. In this passage, Paul says: Brothers and Sisters "We know that all things work for the good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose." What is Paul saying in this passage? Does this mean that no matter what is happening in our lives, all things will work out and make us happy? What does it mean to say "who are called according to his purpose?" To understand Paul we must understand his prayer life. Paul's prayer life was a conversation between him and the mind and heart of Jesus Christ. Paul's conversation was not a one time event. Paul's prayer life was a union with Christ. Paul's conversion process continued throughout his life. Paul continually grew in his relationship with Jesus. Solomon sought wisdom. For us, Jesus is the Wisdom of God among us.

In this passage Paul tells us that we are called to love God. The act of loving God is itself a grace. It is God's grace which allows us to love God. If we love God, then we trust that all will work out to his purpose. God's purpose is good because those who love God, trust God. Here we are called to a deeper conversion with the mind and heart of the Lord. The goal of this continuous conversation with the mind and heart of Jesus is that we may grow to will what God wills. This is true for all situations and events. It is true of the world, the church and in our personal lives. We may not understand this in every situation, but we believe that all is for the growing of the Kingdom of God. For example, look at the death of Christ. Those surrounding the cross did not understand how this tragedy could possibly be for the good of the world let alone them or Jesus. For those who love God, they trust that all will accomplish God's purpose. St. Theresa Lisieux said "Everything is a grace. Everything is the direct effect of our Father's love, difficulties, contradictions, humiliations, all the soul's miseries, burdens, needs. Everything because through them the soul learns humility, realizes its weakness. Everything is a grace because everything is God's gift. Whatever be the character of Life or its unexpected events, to the heart that loves, all is well."

Are we growing in our relationship with Christ to speak as did Theresa or Paul? Do we see ourselves called to love as to will all that God wants in our lives and in the lives of others? Can I trust God so deeply? Conversion is on going. It is more than just saying prayers or fulfilling obligations. It is growing to love and trust the Lord with our lives that the Kingdom of God becomes a reality in our lives.

GUIDELINES FOR ATTENDING MASS

The following has been provided by the Diocese of Brooklyn as requirements for the opening of our parish for public celebration of Mass.

During Mass, all guideline as established for visiting Church must be maintained to ensure social distancing and not exceed the 25% capacity.

At Sacred Hearts-St. Stephen the maximum capacity for the church is now 50 people.

Anyone entering the church must wear a face mask, use the hand sanitizing stations upon entering and wipe down their pew with the provided wipes before leaving.

All ministers for the mass (celebrant, server, lector) must sanitize their hands before mass begins.

What Mass will look like: There will be no entrance procession for all Masses, Sunday and weekday. There will be no missals or worship aids available. Parishioners are encouraged to bring their own from home or use their smartphones. There will be no exchange of peace and no holding of hands at the Lord's Prayer. There will be no offertory collection. Parishioners are to be encouraged to use e-giving at GiveCentral.org/shss or leave their donation in the offering box at the entrance of the church in the center with the white cross on it. People should come for communion in the normal way observing 6 feet of distance between them as they approach. At SHSS the faithful will only be able to receive Holy Communion in the hand. The communicant should come before the Minister of Communion with the mask on for the dialogue (The Body of Christ, Amen) and then, moving to the side, lower the mask and consume the Eucharist and replace the mask.

Holy Communion will be distributed by the celebrant. The host will be allowed to "fall" (reverently) into the communicant's hand to avoid any physical contact. The hands should be disinfected before distribution of Holy Communion. Hand disinfectant should be available nearby those distributing Holy Communion. The precious blood is not to be distributed to the faithful. There is to be no recessional procession. There should be no stopping to greet parishioners as they depart the church.

Music ministry should be limited to the organist and a cantor using social distancing. The cantor should not sing from the same place from which the lector reads. Choirs should not be used at this time since social distancing will be impossible for them. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion should only be used if there are not enough priests in the parish to assist.
