Financial Stewardship

For those who are financially able to continue to support the parish during this time, we encourage you to sign up for e-giving so that we may be able to continue the ministry of the church during this critical time.

Parish Religious Education & Catholic Schools

Regular parish CCD classes held on Sundays and Wednesdays are postponed for the time being. Likewise, all activities related to our children's faith-formation program such as the Sunday 7th grade seminar, Stations of the Cross practices, Confirmation mentoring sessions, and Child Lures training are also postponed for the time being.

The health of all the faithful of the parish is of utmost concern, so let us continue to pray to the Lord who is a healer to protect us and bring about quickly an end to this present crisis through the intercession of His Mother Mary under the title of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Sick Relatives & Friends

Please remember in your prayers the members of our parish and community who are ill, hospitalized or in nursing home care, most especially:

REACH OUT

During this difficult time, please take a moment to check on your neighbor, the elderly and the shut in to see how they are doing. Perhaps they may need an item from the grocery store, or someone to pick up their prescriptions, anything we are able to do for them would be appreciated. Sometimes all they need is conversation and that simply requires a phone call. These are unprecedented times and we are all in this together. Take some of the free time you may have to sit in prayer for all the world.

Please continue to support our parish during this difficult time. Enroll in On line giving at www.Givecentral.org/SHSS. The site is user friendly and very easy to navigate. We thank everyone for continuing to support our parish either through On line Giving or by dropping their respective donations in the Rectory mail slot.

We are so very grateful for all you do for our great parish.

Dear Parish Family,

As we read the parable, let us remember God wills the salvation of all. Let us all remember that the disciple is called to make Christ and his Gospel his way of life. Paul tells us that for him Life is Christ. This is also our call. Notice the responsorial psalm: “The Lord is near to all who call upon him.”

What was your feeling when you heard the Gospel today? Were you annoyed with the land owner? Did the workers who worked all day have a point? What were your answers to the questions which the land owner posed to the workers? Did they not agree to the usual daily wage? Was the land owner not allowed to use his money as he wished? Were the workers envious because he was generous?

To examine this text, let's go to the first reading. Notice this line: “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways says the Lord.” If we look at the parable from the perspective of baptism and the kingdom of God (meaning what are God's wants) then we may be open to the lesson of the parable. Firstly, God's ways are different from our ways. The parable illustrates this point. In the business world, one would not pay the same wages for the latecomer as does the land owner in the parable. In the parable, the land owner represents God. Secondly, the times of day in the parable represent the time and seasons of our lives. Some come to the vineyard early in life, others come later. What does God want? God wants people in his vineyard regardless of what time in their lives they get to the vineyard. The wages upon which the worker and the owner agree represents our baptismal promises. God will make good on the promises even if we are late to do so ourselves. Thirdly, the wealth of the land owner represents grace. God is rich in mercy and grace and can give mercy and grace to whom he wishes. We do not earn God's love or mercy. Fourthly, the envious workers are those who think they can put God in their debt. These are the people who are called early and work diligently all their lives. They resent the latecomer who also receives the reward they think they deserve.

Where did the first called go wrong? They went wrong when they put God in their debt. The first called, as well as all followers of Christ should have at heart what God wishes for the world and for each person....their call to conduct themselves in a way worthy of the Gospel of Christ always. God wants our salvation. The disciple must strive to have the heart of Jesus which rejoices when someone who had been away finally returns, or when someone who never really believed finds the faith. The first called would have been happy because those who were distant finally return home.

So, where does this reading leave you? Are you glad to see people returning to the faith? What is your attitude towards those who come to Mass only for holidays? Are you glad they are here? Are you put out because your seat is taken by someone who only comes on the holidays? Are you happy they are here? If welcomed, do you hope they stay and come back? Do you believe God owes you anything besides what God promised you at baptismal promises? Do you want what Christ wants for all people?
