Dear Parish Family,

How does one come to know Christ? There are many who know about Christ. There are many who write books about Christ. There are many who even preach about Christ, yet none of these categories is a guaranty that one knows Christ in one's heart. We come to know Christ by reading, studying and praying the sacred scriptures especially the Gospels and the Letters of the New Testament. We come to know the mind and heart of Christ by following and knowing the teachings of the Catholic Church, the writings of the Church Fathers and the writings of the saints. These texts need to be read and more importantly, prayed. We pray the texts by quietly reflecting upon them with questions such as: What in this reading stands out for me? Using our imagination, you might ask yourself such questions as where am I in the text? Am I the person in the text to whom Jesus is speaking? Am I the one in the text who needs a healing? Am I the on looker in the text? Am I a person in the text who is trying to catch a glimpse of Jesus as he passes through the crowd? Am I a Pharisee? Sit with your questions as you speak with the reading in your heart.

In addition to knowing scripture, the Eucharist is indispensable for discipleship. The way to know the mind and heart of Jesus is to receive Eucharist. The Jesus of the gospel is found most perfectly in the Eucharist. I cannot underscore this belief enough. Reflect on the real presence of Christ received in Eucharist dwelling deep within you. Spend time in silence before the Blessed Sacrament or in the chapel. Allow and enjoy being in the sacramental presence of the Lord. Make these visits frequently. Make the connection that receiving this Eucharist, praying in the presence of the Eucharist and hearing the Word of God in sacred text invite you to action. The action is to imitate the Jesus with and for those with whom you live, serve and work. Your prayer and reflection will alert you to the presence of Christ in other people especially the poor, the hurting and the suffering.

Your prayer may be silent or you may speak your prayer in your own words from your heart. You may request that the Holy Spirit do great things in you for your sanctification and great things through you for others. However, you may not know the great things God is doing through you nor the gifts of sanctification you are receiving. As St. Paul tell us, be thankful always. Know that as you come to know Jesus, he must increase in you and you must decrease. The good that you do may not be recognized by others. Your private prayer life should be to you and your confessor or spiritual director. Remember, discipleship is not about what Christ can do for you but rather allowing the Lord to work through you for his kingdom.

The goal of the life of a disciple is to be consumed by the Holy Spirit for the Kingdom of God. This is not easy nor is it a romantic dream. Your conviction and on-going discipleship may invite you to take unpopular stands on issues. It may impel you to put the needs of Christ before those of yourself and our loved ones. In cases, it may even cause you to give up your very life. The disciple lives and dies for Christ.
