Dear Parish Family,

In today's first reading from Jeremiah we hear his lament.

Jeremiah is a prophet. Prophets do not tell the future rather they speak truth to power. Jeremiah is faithful to his calling, yet he does not see any success. He is persecuted by the power structures of his time and he is mocked by his people. Yet, in his actions, in his heart and in his mind he is faithful to the mission God gave him to accomplish. While he is discouraged for the moment, Jeremiah's lament ends with a confession of faith that God will act, truth will be victorious and good will triumph.

The lesson from this reading to us is that doing what God requires can be difficult. One's steadfast faithfulness to integrity and truth can be trying, especially when it seems that crime is succeeding. If you ever felt this way the thing to remember is that in the end God wins. Justice and truth may seem delayed, but our faith tells us in the end goodness wins the day. Take consolation in today's Psalm: "See you lowly ones and be glad you who seek God, may your hearts revive! For the Lord hears the poor and his own he spurns not."

Msgr. Guy A. Massie
